The area outlined in New Section C would appear to have been subdivided for child burial and then later overburied. A small insert with the Council map labelled 'Former Children's spaces' appears to confirm this.

2

Arthur Street

Many of the names on the insert can be traced to names on marked graves but all the graves shown on the insert are not visible on the ground. This makes a complete layout almost impossible to produce. The fact that the insert had been printed with all the names rotated by 180 degrees did not help.

For this reason the Plot Numbers cannot be relied upon.
